

Dr. Rudolph R. Windsor

Dr. Rudolph R. Windsor is an internationally known author and speaker in the areas of history, and self-development. He is the author of five books. His best-selling books are as follows:

From Babylon to Timbuktu

The Valley of the Dry Bones

Barak & Deborah United: A novel about how we can save our youth of today.

Dr. Windsor graduated from Gratz College in the 1970s and received a B.A. Degree in Hebrew language, history, and culture. Also, he received his Masters and Doctoral Degrees from the University of Metaphysics. In order to learn more about writing historical novels, Dr. Windsor has read many books on that subject.

After the January, 2010 earthquake in Haiti, Dr. Windsor traveled to Haiti with members of a Haitian Seven Day Adventist church in the Atlanta area to help the victims with their recovery and rebuilding.

He spent most of his adult life in Philadelphia, PA where he married and raised four sons and a daughter. He now resides in a suburb of Atlanta, GA.

Over the years, he has traveled throughout America and abroad lecturing in the Middle East, Central America, and Africa. Also, Dr. Windsor has appeared on radio and TV shows.